

Graphic Designer

Job Responsibilities

Graphic designers create models and concepts by using computer software. Graphic designers develop the prototype art for products by combining art and engineering. They also design how products logos look, and even how games will look in the finished product.

Work Environment

Graphic designers work in can variety of places. They can work in large office complexes with a specific company or at home. Graphic designers are often home employed.

Specialized Skills

To be a graphic designer you need to be proficient in multiple computer softwares. You need to be able to use Microsoft Word, Microsoft Publisher, Microsoft Excel, and Adobe Illustrator. You also need to be creative and original.

Education Required

Graphic designers usually need to have a Bachelor's Degree in graphic design to get a job like such. Four years of college is usually required but you can also land a job as a graphic designer by going to a technical school for two years and receiving a similar certification. Whichever education path you're more comfortable with.

Logan Barnett
4th Block

Salary Expected

The hourly wage you'll most likely work for as a graphic designer is $21.22 per hour but and your salary is $44,150 per year

